RATIFICATION OF THE TREATY.

Hawaiian Legislature Indorses the Measure of Annexation.

San Francisco, Sept. 22.—The steamer Pekin arrived this morning from Yokohama and Honolulu, but no mails were allowed to come ashore because of quarantine regulations.

Correspondents who went out in a boat and talked over the rail with the officers learned that the Hawaiian legislature in both houses on September 10 unanimously ratified the annexation treaty.

THE MAIL SERVICE DISTURBED.

TROOPS ASKED FOR AT VARIOUS POINTS TO REPEL THE INVASION OF PERSONS TAKING REFUGE FROM THE INROADS OF THE MALADY—ESTABLISHMENT OF NEW CAMPS OF DETENTION.

New Orleans, Sept. 22.—The yellow fever record for to-day is: New Orleans, new cases, 10; total cases, 59. Mobile, new cases, 2; total cases, 32. Edwards, new cases, 9; total cases, 68; deaths, 1; others very critical. Biloxi, new cases, 4; total cases, 49.

The Louisiana board of health has asked Governor Foster for $25,000 for the erection and support of a detention camp at Oakland Park, New Orleans. There is no fund available for this purpose, but the governor will probably give the money, counting on the ratification of his action by the legislature. The board is being put to heavy expense, as it is employing several hundred inspectors daily and supporting a large number of the persons in quarantine, both at the Rigolet's detention station and in New Orleans.

In case of the discovery of a case of yellow fever in a house all the persons in the building are quarantined and not allowed to leave it. As many of them are poor the board of health has agreed to feed all needy people thus detained from work. All baggage from New Orleans is now disinfected, and has to be sent to the depot five hours in advance of the departure of the train in order to be thoroughly treated.

The Louisville and Nashville road can put off no passengers this side of Atlanta. The Queen and Crescent route is shut up until after Chattanooga is passed, and the Southern Pacific, Texas Pacific, and Mississippi and Yazoo Valley roads have abandoned all passenger business from New Orleans. No persons from New Orleans are allowed to land from any train nearer than 750 miles out.

The train inspection service under the control of Dr. Carter, of the United States Marine Hospital Service, is rapidly gaining ground. Memphis accepts the United States Hospital Service regulations in regard to freight unconditionally. Three United States inspectors have been placed on the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley road and five on the Illinois Central. The disinfection of freight is now being done on a large scale.

The quarantine is playing havoc with the mail service from Atlanta South. The Texas and Mexico mail for the North and East, which formerly went through New Orleans and Montgomery, now goes via Memphis and Nashville, while the Pacific coast mail for the South, instead of going direct to New Orleans, is now sent there via Cincinnati. The result is that the mail is from one to six days late, and in some places shut out altogether.

Natchez, Miss., is laying in provisions in large quantities preparatory to shutting out all trains and steamboats.

Port Gibson has refused the proposition from the New Orleans commercial exchanges and United States Marine Hospital Service to allow New Orleans freight to enter that town. On the other hand, Forest, Miss., which recently quarantined against the world, has removed all its objections to the Alabama and Vicksburg railroad, which is now running regularly.

The detention camp at Fontainebleau is filling up rapidly. The majority of the refugees to date are women and children. The disinfecting and fumigating apparatus reached there to-day with three cars of food from Mobile. The United States Marine Hospital Service and the Mississippi State board of health have selected the site for a detention camp, two miles south of Edwards, and the work of erecting the necessary buildings is progressing rapidly.

Governor McRaurin, of Mississippi, has received another appeal for troops because of quarantine troubles. Some passengers from New Orleans destined for Osyka, Miss., were detained in quarantine. The Osyka people ordered their release or threatened to break through the quarantine lines. The other towns opposed this and called for troops to resist the invasion. The governor declares that he cannot employ militia to quell these petty quarantine troubles.

SPAIN'S WARRING FACTIONS.

Internal Politics a Disturbance in the National Program.

London, Sept. 22.—Hon. Hannis Taylor, former American minister to Spain, arrived in London from San Sebastian to-day. Mr. Taylor, in conversation with an interviewer, denied the truth of a reported interview with him published in the Madrid Imparcial on September 17, in which he was noted as saying that the American people cared nothing for the Monroe doctrine. His words, he said, were exactly the opposite. He also denied the statement that at one time he was on the point of demanding his passports and had so intimidated the Madrid government.

Mr. Taylor declined to discuss the pending situation between Spain and the United States until he had severed his connection with the diplomatic service at Washington, which he would do about the middle of October, but he gave the Times reporter a clear exposition of the present political crisis in Spain.

"A great struggle is going on in internal politics," said Mr. Taylor, "which involves an attempt on the part of Gen. Azcarraza, the present president of the council, to concentrate in the cabinet representatives of all the factions of the conservative party. The largest section is led by Senor Silvela, who stood apart from the late Premier Canovas because he had declared the party to have been corrupted by Romero Robledo, who we would call the 'Boss Tweed' of Spain."

"It is not likely that Silvela and Romero Robledo can be united. If this is true, the present ministry must soon give way to the liberals under the leadership of Senor Saez. What effect the latter will have upon Cuban affairs I do not know, as Sagasta has not manifested any stronger disposition in favor of real Cuban autonomy than Canovas did."

"The Spanish people are not yet sufficiently educated to govern themselves upon republican principles. Senor Castellar is right in not wishing for a Spanish republic yet, although he is a republican. The country, however, has strong democratic leanings and will eventually be a republican stronghold."

Mr. Taylor intends to pay a visit to Professor Freeman, the historian at Oxford, and will sail for New York on October 7, on board the American line steamer St. Paul.

FIGHTING FOR HIS LIFE.

Sensational Evidence Introduced in the Luetgert Trial.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—In the celebrated Luetgert trial to-day the defense put on the witness stand a teamster who swore that he hauled bones to the sausage factory and put them in the vat in which it is alleged Mrs. Luetgert's body was dissolved by chemicals.

INVESTIGATION BEGUN.

Sheriff Martin and His Deputies Undergoing a Trial.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 22.—The investigation into the killing of the striking miners at Lattimer by Sheriff Martin and his deputies was resumed here to-day.

The witnesses first called were John Ingla and Andrew Nuwati. Both denied that the sheriff told them to disperse or that he read the riot act.

Nuwati was the man whom Martin took hold of in the crowd and who in turn grasped the sheriff. It was at this action that the firing began.

To-day four more deputies reported at the meeting. Fifteen are still absent. Judge Lynch has sent out requisition papers for them.

HAY'S HOLIDAY OVER.

London, Sept. 22.—Col. John Hay, the United States ambassador, returned to London last night from his holiday trip to Scotland. This afternoon Mr. Hay had a long interview with Hannis L. Taylor, lately United States minister to Spain.

MEET INSTANT DEATH.

Providence, R. I., Sept. 22.—William J. Benner, aged 38, and Engineer James M. Brown, aged 73, were struck and instantly killed by fragments from a bursting fly wheel weighing over five tons, in the shops of the Providence Rubber Company this afternoon. Several other men were injured.

A WRESTLING MATCH.

Pima, O., Sept. 22.—Frank Gehle threw Martin Muldoon, of Warren, Ohio, a brother of the great William Muldoon, in the Gracoe-Roman championship. One fall in twenty minutes was the result.

A STRIKE MAY FOLLOW.

Chicago, Sept. 22.—A strike on the Southside Railway Company system is almost sure to follow the discharge of seven union men yesterday. It will involve over 3,000 men.

BURGULARS LOOT POSTOFFICE. Norfolk, Va., Sept. 22.—The postoffice at Fortress, Norfolk county, was robbed last night, an entrance being effected by boring through some of the blinds. The cabinet of the office was taken out into a field near by, but, strange to say, everything was left except a few pennies. Officers of the country are on the lookout for the burglars.

BECKLEHEIMER CAPTURED.

Christiansburg, Va., Sept. 22.—Special—Hines Beckleheimer and Luther Vaiden, the two white men who broke jail here Saturday night, were captured last night at Eggleston's Springs by J. M. Smith. Deputy Sheriff Boone has gone after them and they will be returned to their old quarters to-night.

You cannot do better than leave your order with C. M. Ames, 111 south Jefferson street, for coal, coke and wood. Phone 111.

BRUISERS MATCHED.

New York, Sept. 22.—Kid McFarland was to-day matched to fight Jack Eberhardt at the Tulane Athletic Club, New Orleans, for a purse of $3,000, with a guarantee of 50 per cent. of the gross receipts and $200 expenses. The fight will be pulled off on October 15.

SILVER'S CAUSE ABROAD.

Moneyed Powers Concerned at the Attitude of England.

GREAT BRITAIN IS PONDERING.

THE CAPITALISTIC INTERESTS TO MEET AND PREPARE A REBUKE TO THE MEASURES ADOPTED BY THE BANK OF ENGLAND—STRONG SIGNS OF BELLIGERENT SENTIMENT.

London, Sept. 22.—A meeting to-morrow of the representatives of all the banks in the clearing house to discuss the action resulting from the recent letter of Mr. Hugh Smith, governor of the Bank of England, to Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, the chancellor of the exchequer, relating to holding of one-fifth of the bank's note reserve in silver will probably result in the adoption of a rebuke and a sharp protest against the bank's action.

A member of the clearing house committee says that definite proposals have been formulated, as it is understood that there is some difference of opinion among the members.

Financial circles are becoming seriously agitated as the full bearings of the question are developed. The increased uneasiness is due more to the attitude of the government than to the action of the bank.

Mr. Alfred S. Harvey, manager of Glyn, Mills, Currie & Co., one of the strongest financial institutions of London, said to-day:

"It is the possible change in the attitude of the government that we must fear. The letter of the bank governor means nothing. We had just been informed by our American agents that the silver agitation was subsiding, when, apparently, the British government contemplated giving it a flip. Free coinage in France would, of course, mean the bankruptcy of the Bank of France, but any arrangement by Senator Wolcott with the French government would give the appearance of feasibility to his propositions."

A dispatch from Bombay describes the silver market there as very excited. Silver, it says, is in strong demand, owing to the up-country bazaras deducing from the statement of Mr. Hugh Smith that the Bank of England will shortly be a buyer and to the belief that a further import duty is imminent, and that the mint may possibly be reopened. The price has accordingly risen since Thursday from 67-3-4 rupees per 100 tolas to 75 rupees.

The Standard points to this as an instance of the incalculable mischief clumsy exhibitions of humor in business affairs may do. It urges the bank representatives at their meeting to-morrow to formulate protests against the action of the Bank of England, but says it fears the meeting may end in talk, especially as the boards of directors of the banks lack a strong leader, and the clearing house committee has not a definite mandate to represent the banks.

OPPOSITION TO THE BELL.

Movement to Start a Local Telephone in Danville.

Danville, Sept. 22.—The movement to establish a local telephone exchange to compete with the Southern Bell Telephone Company received a distinct boost to-night at a general meeting of the members of the Business Men's Association.

The matter was fully discussed, but the final outcome will not be known for a week or more yet, owing to the correspondence system of ascertaining the will of the members of the association on any question. There is not much doubt, however, that the new company will be formed.

PRINCESS ANNE NOMINATION.

Princess Anne, Va., Sept. 22.—The Democratic convention of this county convened yesterday at the courthouse to nominate a delegate from the county to the house of delegates. The convention was called to order by E. R. Ward, county chairman. Dr. George P. Sned, State senator from this district, was unanimously nominated. The whole number of delegates sent from the magisterial districts, aggregating thirty-three in all, voted as one man without a dissenting voice.

Just drop in at 111 south Jefferson street and give Ames your order for coal, coke and wood. You will always get the best. Phone 111.

THE QUESTION SETTLED.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The customs officials of the Treasury regard the construction by the Attorney General of section 22 of the new tariff law as conclusive and settling, as far as the present law is concerned, the question of discriminating duties. They will immediately promulgate the Attorney General's opinion and direct that a final liquidation be made of all entries which have been suspended pending the decision.

WALTER E. FAISON DEAD.

Wilmington, N. C., Sept. 22.—Hon. Walter E. Faison, ex-Solicitor of the State Department, Washington, D. C., died this morning at 1:25 o'clock at the home of his brother-in-law, Dr. J. E. Mathews, of this city, aged 42 years.

KILLED AT PORTSMOUTH.

Norfolk, Sept. 22.—At 7 o'clock to-night Charles Stewart, of Philadelphia, met death at the Seaboard Air Line yards, in Portsmouth. He was struck by a locomotive while standing on a siding. The engine knocked him down and the wheels passed over him, completely severing both legs close to the body. He died in twenty minutes in horrible agony. He leaves a wife and child.

WEYLER IS ANGRY.

Blames His Admiral for Allowing Filibusters to Land.

Havana, via Key West, Sept. 22.—The news of the successful landing of three filibustering expeditions on the northern coast of the provinces of Pinar del Rio and Santa Clara has stirred up the navy personnel of the navy department in Havana and caused a blistering communication from General Weyler to the Spanish admiral.

"What is most irritating," says the captain-general, in his document, "is the fact that one of those expeditions passed within a few miles of Havana's Morro Castle, and within reach of our guns, without being observed by any of the many gunboats which are supposed to patrol our shores." This is the expedition landed at Puerto Escamido, a few miles from Havana. It said also that on September 10 the filibustering steamer Dauntless, which brought the three expeditions to Cuba, was seen on her third trip by the Spanish transatlantic steamer Reina Maria Cristina, while approaching the coast of Santa Clara province. The steamer was on her way to Havana from Spain and Porto Rico.

The captain of a Spanish schooner, which entered the port of Matanzas from the Bahamas, has reported that the Dauntless received aid from the keeper of an English lighthouse on one of the British keys. The filibusters, according to this version, were short of coal and provisions, and both commodities were supplied by the English official. General Weyler has ordered an immediate investigation of this report with a view of protesting to the British government.

Cipher dispatches about the affair have also been sent to Senor Dupuy de Lome at Washington and answered by him. It is believed that the Spanish minister will take some steps against the Dauntless and its crew and add the three expeditions to the list of Spanish claims for which damages will be asked from the United States. This list, it is said, here, has been already prepared as an answer to General Woodford's proceedings at the court of Spain.

The indignation that the news about the Dauntless' doings has produced here among the uncompromising Spaniards is hard to describe. They sincerely believe that the American Government is helping the Cuban patriots in the United States to ship war material to Cuba, and they refuse to listen when they are told that really the administration does all in its power to enforce the neutrality laws in a sense favorable to Spain.

A BOMBSHELL IN CAMP.

A Democratic County Convention May Have to Reassemble.

Chatham, Va., Sept. 22.—It is asserted here by both Democrats and Populists who are in position to know whereof they speak that Mr. W. H. H. Cooke, who was nominated by the Democratic convention for the lower house, will decline the honor and that he will be nominated by the Populist convention to meet here Tuesday.

It is alleged that Mr. Cooke would have accepted had Mr. Berger or some other Populist been put on the ticket with him.

If all this be true, and there seems to be but little if any doubt about it, the Democrats will have to reassemble either as a convention or in executive committee and supply the vacancy on the ticket to be caused by Mr. Cooke's declination. Probably no action will be taken until after the holding of the Populist convention Thursday.

HE JUMPED FOR GLORY.

William Gaute Leaped From Brooklyn Bridge and Was Picked Up.

New York, Sept. 22.—Thirsting for glory and fame, William Gaute, 25 years of age, jumped from the Brooklyn bridge this afternoon and was picked up by a tug.

The jump was prepared for with great care. He was padded with heavy material and weighted with lead. Gaute is the seventeenth man to make the jump. Seven have been killed in the attempt. He was taken to Hudson Street Hospital, but was found to be only slightly bruised, and was arrested.

STILL MORE GOLD MINES.

New Whatcom, Wash., Sept. 22.—There is a veritable stampede from here to the new mining discovery in the mountains north of the State road to Hannigan Pass. Several parties left here yesterday, more went to-day and many more will leave to-morrow.

A WOMAN WITH NERVE.

Sharon, Pa., Sept. 22.—Mrs. Wm. Johnson, of Lake township, refused a burly tramp food to-day, whereupon he attempted to assault her. She ran up stairs and secured a revolver and as he was leaving the premises shot him through the leg, making a serious wound. Assistance arrived and the tramp was locked up.

BREAK IN SPAIN'S CABINET.

Madrid, Sept. 22.—Count Tejada de Valdesera, minister of justice, having objected to his sending a certain order to the bishop of Palma in connection with his excommunication, Senor Reverter has resigned the portfolio of finance. Prime Minister Azcarraza will convoke a meeting of the cabinet to-morrow to consider the situation.

FIERCE WINDS ARE BLOWING.

A Terrific Gale is Moving Up the Atlantic Coast.

SHIPPING IN GREAT DANGER.

CITIZENS OF SAVANNAH FEAR A REPEITION OF THE HURRICANE OF LAST YEAR—MANY STEAMERS ARE AFRAID TO LEAVE PORT—WIND BLOWING SIXTY MILES AN HOUR.

Savannah, Sept. 22.—Since 10 o'clock this morning the residents of Savannah have been in fear of a hurricane. Two red flags with black centers have been flying from the top of the weather bureau. Telegrams from the South say that the hurricane is coming this way. Business has been almost suspended since 2 o'clock this afternoon. A terrific rain storm has raged since early this morning.

Weather Observer Sherier sent out a warning this morning for no vessels to leave port. The steamship Tallahassee, of the Ocean Steamship company's fleet, which was to have sailed at 2 p. m. for New York, did not go out.

At the quarantine station, fifteen miles down the river, the wind blew fifty miles an hour all day. All the vessels there rode the gale. The quarantine officer left his post and came up to the city. He will not go back until the weather clears.

The wind blew so hard at Tybee Island that the anemometer of the weather bureau was blown away.

Charleston, S. C., Sept. 22.—The gale which is moving up the Florida coast to-night has demoralized shipping.

The Clyde steamship scheduled to sail to-day for New York and the Iroquois for Jacksonville, remained in port and would not venture out. All the small vessels have come in and have gone up the river. The New York steamer will sail to-morrow if it is safe.

The gale is expected to reach here after midnight with a velocity of sixty miles an hour.

YELLOW FEVER IN ST. LOUIS.

No More Bills of Health to Persons Going South.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 22.—St. Louis has a case of sickness isolated at the Marine Hospital which is probably yellow fever. The suspect is William Tript, aged 30. He came to St. Louis from East Cairo, Ky., where he was employed on the tug boat Alpha, on which four cases developed.

The issuing of clear bills of health to persons going South was at once stopped. The cold weather here takes all the element of danger out of the case.

FOR THE HOUSE.

Palaski, Va., Sept. 22.—Special.—The Democratic legislative convention for Giles and Pulaski counties met here to-day and nominated for the house of delegates James W. Williams, the present delegate. The nomination was made by acclamation. The Roanoke platform was adopted and Senator Daniel endorsed.

FIRE IN BOTETOURT.

Pinecastle, Sept. 22.—The cry of fire called many of our citizens from their slumbers this morning at 2:30 o'clock. It was soon ascertained that the house of Ed. Crowder, who lives just outside the corporate limits, was in a blaze, and being rapidly consumed. Everything was dry as tinder, and in a very short while there was nothing left standing but the chimney. Mr. Crowder saved the most of his furniture, and his loss will not be heavy financially, as his dwelling was insured in a good company. He will suffer great inconvenience from the fact that he was prepared to build an addition to his house, and had a large portion of the material on the ground. His barn and stables and a large stack of straw situated close to his dwelling were, fortunately, saved.
